

I'm Credible by Jazelle Made It

I'm Credible is an Acapella Trap Incredibles inspired album by Jazelle Made It. Jazelle is one of the most unique artist out right now. The creativity to craft music like this is actually very damn impressive. Jazelle takes characters from The Incredibles and turns them into some rap machines. The album is 15 minutes of incredible beats and bars from top to bottom but the highlights of the album for me are Lucius Radio and Eclectic Bob. Frozone and Edna get their shine to spit some bars and they do not disappoint. I'm Credible is the album that Jazelle leveled up her genius. Just wait till you hear everything else that was cooked up in the oven.
